25.01.2007 - New album by swiss-based electronic producer romeo. With "pathway", romeo brings us a very original and colorful album of electronic music with varied influences. From cinematic electronic landscapes, to dark hypnotic beats, to more rhythmic pieces, romeo delivers an excellent and outstanding album putting together countless ambiances and influences to make it a very special album not to be missed!

A track off the album has been picked by the notorious electronic french magazine trax for their january cd sampler as "the new electronic discovery of the month".
